

BRIEF PROFILE

DHARMESH R PARMAR

BE (Electronics and Communication), MBA, DFM

Deputy Commissioner of Industries

Industries Commissionerate Office,
UdhyogBhavan - Gandhinagar

A highly accomplished, dedicated and disciplined professional with more than 16 years of experience in working on issues related to energy regulatory, implementing industrial policies and electricity reform sector in developing country as India. Extensive work in regulatory affairs and management of energy sector projects, sector analysis, sector reforms, private sector participation and empirical knowledge of promoting green energy through tariff intervention blended with regulatory approach has recognized him for producing extraordinary results. Diversely experienced from start up to work out, turnaround and rapid growth – resolving long standing problems and creating solution that improve operational efficiency. He leverages expert analysis and insights to promulgate lean approach and team empowerment that drives organizational improvements and instills best practices.

PRESENTLY WORKING WITH - INDUSTRIES COMMISSIONERATE OFFICE , GOVERNEMENT OF GUJARAT

As Deputy Commissioner of Industries (Incentive-Large):

- Implementing the industrial policies of Government of Gujarat.
- Assisting large/mega projects by facilitating them under various schemes
- Facilitating the industries under various schemes of State Government
- Extensive consultation with new entrepreneurs & existing industrialists for created demand for establishing new industrial units of Gujarat state.

WORKED WITH:

- Gujarat Electricity Regulatory Commission
- GSECL (GEB) – ENGINEER– Thermal Power Station
- Videocon International Ltd. – Production and Process Control Engineer